

THE PLAY TROUPE of PORT WASHINGTON

Middle of the Night

By Paddy Chayefsky

Sousa Jr. High

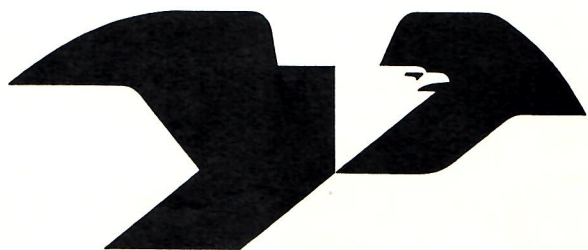

Nov. 14-15, 1969

..... THE SECOND PRODUCTION of our 1969-70 season is Middle of the Night, Paddy Chayefsky's comedy drama which ran for nearly 500 Broadway performances and was later made into a celebrated film. A hit of the 1956 season, it starred Edward G. Robinson and Gena Rowlands and told a moving love story polarized by the pealing heart throbs of youth and the deep chimes of aged maturity. Its carefully wrought balance of pathos and humor appealed to thousands and surely the spell woven by this master of psychological realism will continue its magic tonight.

The Play Troupe of Port Washington has now entered its 43rd consecutive year of community theatrical endeavors; founded in 1927, it has remained a local amateur organization, its non-profit enterprises initiated solely for the benefit and enjoyment of our citizens. Each season features two major productions and a children's show, as well as monthly meetings highlighted by readings and lectures. Those interested in membership or sponsorship are urged to contact Mrs. Anita Camerik, Secretary at 44 Soundview Drive (telephone 883-8664).

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Ralph Salerno (Director) is known by local playgoers through his several acting and directing accomplishments with Play Troupe, St. Peter's Guild, and the Roslyn Mill Pond Theater. He was Director of last season's children's show "The Wizard of Oz" and, in addition, played roles in "Barefoot In The Park" (telephone repairman) and "The Best Man" (Sheldon Marcus).

Norma Berman (The Girl) studied acting and directing at Stanford University under Gerald Hiken and played in the university production of "Twelfth Night." Formerly a teacher of English Literature with specialization in Shakespeare studies, she now conducts a busy home-making schedule as wife and mother. This is Norma's first appearance with Play Troupe.

Stuart Darrow (The Manufacturer) is another newcomer to Play Troupe. Before coming to Port Washington, Stuart was active with the Dorchester Masquers Theater in Brooklyn and The Hollywood (Fla.) Playhouse. For the latter, he was Treasurer and Director of the Workshop..and was associated with many productions as actor, director or technical worker. He also directed plays. Stuart may be seen in a forthcoming CBS-TV film entitled "Darker Than Amber."

Rhoda Elenowitz (The Sister) is also making her initial appearance on the Play Troupe stage. She has had background experience in drama and public speaking and, as a college undergraduate, played in some of the Gilbert & Sullivan operettas. Rhoda is active in community service as a psychiatric social worker.

Audrey Hickman (The Mother) was seen last season as Aunt Em in "The Wizard of Oz" and has also participated in backstage activities. She is a professional ballerina and toured with the national companies of "Oklahoma" and "South Pacific."

Susan Bridges (The Kid Sister) plays her first speaking role tonight but has been on stage in past Play Troupe children's productions. A 12th grade student at Schreiber High School, Susan's hobbies include dramatics and fencing.

Louise Merrim (The Widow) is a past President of Play Troupe and well known to our audiences through her many stage appearances. She highlighted last season with her portrayals of The Mother in "Barefoot In The Park" and The Wicked Witch in "The Wizard of Oz." She was also seen as Mrs. Gamadge in "The Best Man." Louise is an accomplished set artist and painter and her work may be seen in local art galleries.

Pam Papasidero (The Daughter), a recent graduate of Schreiber High School makes her Play Troupe debut with us this year. While at Schreiber High School, Pam was featured in "Diary of Anne Frank," "Secret Life of Walter Mitty," and "Oliver." among other plays. She has also acted professionally at The Sharon (Conn.) Playhouse.

Esther Brunola (The Neighbor) is a native of Glasgow, Scotland where she studied dramatics at Riverside Academy. Although this is her first Play Troupe appearance, Esther has been active in backstage activities in past productions.

Anita Camerik (The Friend) was active with The Community Theatre of Petersburg (Va.), her home town, before coming to Port Washington. She has been present behind the scenes of several recent plays and in "The Best Man" was seen intermittently as The Secretary. Anita is now serving as Secretary of Play Troupe.

Bill Herdes (The Son-In-Law) appeared last season in "The Wizard of Oz". A resident of Port Washington for four years, Bill has worked on several Play Troupe production crews.

Ray Gombach (The Husband) is remembered for roles in "Thurber Carnival" and "Another Autumn Day". Ray has, in addition, appeared in Off-Broadway plays and on TV's "Play Of The Week."

Mary Hoban (The Canasta Player and Assistant to the Director) has worked on stage properties and set dressings for numerous past productions and appeared onstage in "The Women."
